Competition Overview

Coolray Field has long been associated with special events since its opening in 2009. Formerly known as Gwinnett Stadium, this 10,427-seat minor league baseball park in Lawrenceville, Georgia is the home field of the Gwinnett Braves, the Triple-A affiliate of the Atlanta Braves. Having worked with so many great organizations on so many wonderful events, Coolray Field is now taking on the world of competition BBQ.

The second Annual “Sip & Swine” BBQ Competition is a fully sanctioned national event with the Kansas City Barbeque Society (KCBS). It will feature two days of Barbeque competition within a large competitor and vendor village located in the parking facilities of Coolray Field. There will be numerous options for food and refreshments, live music performances, and will provide an overall family friendly, casual and fun atmosphere.

Competition categories include Chicken, Pork Ribs, Pork, and Beef Brisket. The Backyard teams will compete in all categories barring Beef Brisket. Only the Professional Teams, who are competing in all of the barbecue categories, are eligible for Grand Champion or Reserve Grand champion awards.

Teams are also required to compete in the People’s Choice Competition for the public Saturday morning.

All of the proceeds from this event will be donated to Home of Hope at The Gwinnett Children’s Shelter:
